

COP #1
Not so fast, buddy!

They push Grant in front of them towards the lobby doors.

As they proceed through the lobby women start noticing Grant's general lack of clothes.

Catcalls begin drifting across the lobby.

Some of these women have apparently been breakfasting on Mimosas and Bloody Marys instead of more solid fare.

FEMINIST #2
Take off the Towel!!!

The lobby goes berserk.

Women start crowding around the three thinking this event is a part of the conference.

"Take off the towel" is yelled a couple more times. Wolf whistles pierce the air as the crowd becomes a mob.

The two police officers begin to look more and more frightened as women close in around them.

Women start making grabs at Grant's towel.

GRANT
Pardon me! Ma'am!

Grant slaps away another errant hand.

Women are now starting to pull at the policemen's uniforms, untucking one of their shirts, and pulling off the other's hat.

COP #2
Ms! That is against the law.

A yell comes from the back of the crowd.

FEMINIST #3
They're strippers!

The mob goes wild.
